

How to continue accessing non-contractual benefits:

There are a number of non-contractual benefits that RoE employees will continue to be able to access like they did when they were employees of the Trusts, including:

- * London Mutual Credit Union – deductions from salary will occur as usual
- * Health Service Discounts (HSD) – the ability to gain discounts via HSD will be as before
- * Childcare Vouchers – individuals have been contracted regarding the facilitation of this non-contractual benefit
- * Season ticket loans – deductions from salary will continue as before. Viapath offer a Season Ticket Loan, up to the value of £7,000.
- * Trade Union membership payments – Deductions from salary will continue as before the transfer
- * Thomas Guy Club, gym and swimming pool – Payments for membership will occur as before via deductions from salary
- * Cycle to work scheme – Payments for the scheme will continue as before and individuals should have been contacted regarding the facilitation of this non-contractual benefit
